

Youth Leadership Forum -empowering high school students with disabilities at the State House

Where: Massachusetts State House, Boston

When: Monday, June 8, 2009
10 am to 3 pm

Why: To provide an opportunity for high school with disabilities to discover and develop leadership skills.

- Workshop Sessions:
  - Preparing for college
  - How to prepare myself to get a job
  - How to change public policy and participate in government
- Rally for Disability History Month to be recognized in public schools

Join us and rally at State House to advocate that public schools across the Commonwealth recognize October as Disability History Month.

- Tours of the State House

What should you do: Contact Colleen for more information on registering for the YLF at the State House (must a high school student) People of all ages are invited to attend the rally, please come and show your support for the next chapter of the Disability Rights Movement!

This event is being organized by :

Boston Center for Independent Living, Easter Seals Massachusetts, Disability Policy Consortium, Massachusetts Rehabilitation Commission, Partners for Youth with Disabilities,

For more information please contact :

Colleen Flanagan
Easter Seals Youth Leadership Program Manager
1-800-244-2756 ext 410
CFlanagan@easterersealsma.org