

The Boston Center for Independent Living

Is hosting

a meeting to bring together people with disabilities and seniors
The meeting will explore and will give the opportunity to learn about emergency response resources within their local communities.

"Emergency Preparedness Begins at Home"

Monday May 11, 2009

From 10:30 am to 12:00 pm.

South Boston – Sr. Ctr.

136 H Street House

So Boston, MA

All are welcome. People with disabilities, seniors and others with disability issues encouraged. This is an opportunity to ensure that people with disabilities and seniors have the assistance they need in times of emergency.

The event is wheelchair accessible. If you need other accommodations or want more information call Evelyne Milorin at 617-338-6665 x246 or email at emilorin@bostoncil.org